Description

Lenci Jar with Galleon, circa 1940 with lid. Cylindrical in shape, it is made of slip-cast ceramic and features a galleon design in matte polychrome enamel in natural sienna. On the back, the inscription in cursive script within a wavy cartouche reads Buona fortuna. The lid has four minor chips on the rim and a superficial crack approximately two centimeters long, also near the rim. On the bottom is the cursive mark in blue: Lenci TORINO ITALIA.
