Description

Charming curule-shaped stool, resting on an elegant solid mahogany X-shaped base, joined by a turned central strut. This model is directly inspired by Empire-period furniture, echoing the sober, balanced lines characteristic of the early 19th century. The generously upholstered seat is covered in a discreetly decorated yellow fabric, highlighted by a traditional studded finish that adds an extra decorative touch. Beautiful warm mahogany patina, perfectly stable structure. 20th-century work of fine quality, ideal as an occasional seat or end of bed. Good overall condition, clean fabric and immediately usable.
