Description

This splendid kitchen set is a real highlight among my offerings--a collection that is not merely a set of cooking utensils, but a genuine piece of culinary history. Originating from the prestigious kitchens of a Venetian palace, this set dates back to the 18th century, an era when copper was the undisputed king of noble tables due to its extraordinary thermal properties and timeless elegance.The set consists of 8 saucepans of various sizes, each one reflecting centuries of Venetian culinary traditions. The patina of time on the authentic copper and the hand-hammered shapes bear witness to the exceptional craftsmanship of the 18th century. Owning these pieces means bringing into your home the same refined and opulent atmosphere that once filled the residences of Venetian doges and
