Description

Rare and emblematic of Line Vautrin's work, this superb "Poissons" pendant perfectly illustrates the poetic, symbolic and instantly recognizable universe of the great French designer. Made around 1950, this refined piece in gilded bronze enhanced by deep blue decoration seduces with its rich material, fine relief and singularly elegant composition. The fish motif, dear to Line Vautrin's imagination, adds a dreamlike, precious dimension to the piece. The metalwork combined with the use of Talosel - the artist's emblematic technique - lends this jewel a rare presence, halfway between wearable artwork, collector's jewelry and decorative object. Dimensions: 5.7 x 4.8 cm Period: 1950s Designer: Line Vautrin Materials: gilt bronze, blue Talosel Condition: very good overall condition,
