Description

Aircraft wing-shaped "Wing" desk in aluminum - Spectacular piece of aeronautical design An exceptional aluminum desk with a design inspired directly by aeronautics, taking the silhouette of an aircraft wing. A rare and visually striking piece that immediately transforms an interior. With its generous dimensions and technical allure, this desk imposes a real presence. Its streamlined top rests on a sculptural openwork base, evoking aeronautical engineering structures, combining visual lightness and aesthetic power. Its raw aluminum look, with a slight patina, gives it a highly sought-after industrial character, perfectly in tune with the times. An ideal piece for an architect's office, contemporary interior, loft or high-end space wishing to stand out. Dimensions: Height: 80 cm Length: 257
