Description

A rare opportunity for collectors and enthusiasts of restoration: this splendid early 19th-century French sofa embodies the timeless elegance of French craftsmanship. With its harmonious dimensions (W 140 cm, H 110 cm, D 67 cm), the piece stands out for its solid wooden frame in perfect condition, embellished with refined gold decoration bearing the authentic marks of history.The object's charm is enhanced by the small-stitch fabric upholstery, which depicts evocative hunting scenes. Although the fabric shows natural signs of wear, the integrity of the design makes it a piece of great decorative value. The small sofa shows some flaking of the gilding, which attests to its authenticity; the lower section and the backrest require restoration work to replace the upholstery and straps, thus offering
