Description

Garden chaise longue, France, 1930-1940
Dimensions: (H 80 cm × W 163 cm). An elegant folding outdoor chaise longue, a testament to French taste between the two world wars, combining functionality and lightness with a natural and refined aesthetic. The frame is made of turned wood, left in its natural state, while the seat is entirely covered in a dense rattan weave, embellished with delicate polychrome inlays that accentuate the vertical lines of the backrest. The meticulous and durable rattan craftsmanship attests to the high-quality artisanal work characteristic of European production of the era. Excellent condition. Original surface preserved; interventions limited to cleaning and light conservative polishing. Solid frame, well-preserved weave showing natural signs of
