Description

Antique polychrome bisque stoup representing a Pieta, depicting the Virgin Mary gathering Christ descended from the Cross. Antique work in soft blue, pink, green and white hues, with beautiful sculptural presence and delicate facial expression. The base is embellished with a shell-shaped basin intended for holy water, highlighted with blue fillets. Nice domestic devotional object from the mid-19th century. 26cm high. Very good condition, a small chip to one of the Christ's feet.
