17th-century Bronze Plaquette Depicting A Bacchanal.

490 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Large bronze plaquette depicting a Bacchanal.Southern Netherlands, circa 1600. Cast from the 17th century.Diameter 12.9 cmThis joyful bacchanal has sometimes been attributed to the South German school, but most authors agree on a Flemish origin. Several lead and bronze examples are preserved in museums, such as the Rijksmuseum (lead example): https://www.rijksmuseum.nl/en/collection/object/Bacchanaal--bb2a3d1d989dac11fbf1850e6227a7fc?tab=dataBibliography:Ingrid Weber, Deutsche, Niederländische und Französische Renaissance-plaketten, 1975, cat. no. 714,2.

Dealer

Spinario
Sculptures and Works of Art from Renaissance to Eighteenth-century.
Mobile : 06 20 57 63 51

Paris 75001