Description

An elegant Tuscan sideboard crafted from gattice wood, dating from the late 18th century. The piece features a solid, linear structure characterized by two doors with simple paneling and horizontal crossbars typical of Sienese craftsmanship of the period. The wax finish enhances the warm honey-colored tone of the wood, highlighting the original patina and the natural grain of the gattice. The shaped base and minimalist hardware contribute to the piece's rustic charm, preserving the authentic character of Tuscan tradition. In excellent condition, this sideboard is ideal as a piece of furniture in classic, rustic, or country chic settings, adding a touch of history and craftsmanship.
