Description

An Icon of Italian Design: The Fontana Table by Oswaldo Borsani If you're looking for a piece that's not just furniture, but a true work of art, this is the opportunity you've been waiting for. We present an exceptional piece designed by Oswaldo Borsani, dating from the 1920s-1930s and crafted by the prestigious ABV (Arredamenti Borsani Varedo) workshop. Masterful Craftsmanship and Unique Details This table is not just a piece of furniture, but a sculptural masterpiece. With generous dimensions (190x100x80 cm), it stands out for its exquisite use of red maple and Italian walnut, enhanced by a refined aged gold leaf finish. The true heart of the piece lies in its fountain-shaped base: a pedestal of precious green marble from which four mythological figures emerge--sea nymphs (Callionymtis)--who gracefully and elegantly support the tabletop. A perfect blend of strength and delicacy that embodies the eclectic and visionary taste of early 20th-century Italy. An Investment for Your Living Room Although the top has likely undergone some restoration over time, the table retains its magnetic charm and structural integrity intact. It is the ideal piece for those who wish to stand out and own a fragment of global design history.
