Description

Pair of geometric Art Deco bookends in black & beige veined marble early 20th century. Assumed to be from the Art Deco period (1910-1939), this pair of bookends is authentically Art Deco, with its characteristic streamlined geometry. Art Deco is that pivotal period in design when geometry and symmetry sophisticatedly form the design of the object, using noble materials from nature such as colored veined marble. Charming and sophisticated, this pair of bookends is poetic: we seek to make the most beautiful and luxurious possible with the least possible, and it works. Stable, they'll hold your books in place on your bookshelf, with understated old-world charm. Fast & careful shipping to France, Europe & worldwide. Dimensions -> Height: 9 cm -> Length:

10 cm -> Depth: 7 cm -> Total weight: 1.3 kg
