Description

Portrait of woman with necklace oil on canvas 43x36 early 20th 1930s Created by an artist wishing to remain discreet, this portrait of an elegant French woman dates from the Art Deco period. There's a taste for cultural academicism in this bourgeois portrait, with a sober woman with warm, delicate complexions in a beautiful, luminous environment dressed in a summer outfit wearing a gold necklace bearing a sky-blue cabochon that's both discreet and elegant, as was fashionable in the past. What magnifies this unique canvas is its wood and gilded stucco frame, which seeks to imitate a Baroque style with a geometric code specific to the Art Deco style of the early 20th century, from which it originates. Ideal in an environment appreciating antique portraits, it's just waiting for you to
