Description

Lovely and original navette bowl decorated with blue water lilies and sagittaria leaves by Gallé.A highly original piece of glassware, beautiful both for its shape and for this motif of blue water lilies, entirely acid-etched. They contrast with the milky background and dark sagittaria leaves. Everything is acid-etched, with fine chasing and beautiful colors.Perfect condition, signed in the decoration, circa 1905.19 cm long and 12 cm high.Superb glassware, as much for its shape as for its motifs and colors, rare.
