A crucified Christ is represented on a cross with a triangular base adorned with mother-of-pearl elements featuring engraved and tinted details, combined with darker wood to form simple floral, vegetal and geometric motifs. The front features the IHS symbol surmounted by a cross above the three nails of Christ. The shape of this Latin cross and its decoration recall examples created in the Holy Land in the 18th and 19th centuries as souvenirs for pilgrims, gifts for dignitaries, etc.
