

Corrado Vigni (1888 - 1956) Lost Wax Bust Of Young Woman With Bared Breasts , Pre - Renaissance

4 200 EUR

Signature : Corrado Vigni 1888 - 1956

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Length : 39 cm

Width : 14 cm

Height : 48 cm

Description

Country: Italy , Florence Sculptor: Corrado Vigni (1888 - 1956) Subject: this Florentine sculptor draws his inspiration from the Florentine Renaissance and the Medicis, with a nod to this young woman in bust form, her braids falling down her back, her bosom bare and her face full of shyness and angelic gentleness. "Does the inspiration come from the youthful face of Marie de Médicis, whose beauty concealed the worst crimes? "It's impossible to remain indifferent to this creation, whose golden-brown patina of this lost-wax bronze was skilfully crafted ' a jewel ' Signature: signed in the material ' C, Vigni ' (see photo) Technique: lost-wax bronze Dimensions: Condition: totally perfect ' no patina wear Provenance: former collection of a Gent notable * visible at ' Sablon Antiques Center ' 39 Place du

Dealer

Vanitas & Arts

Tableaux anciens

Mobile : 0032486733790

Bruxelles 1080

Grand Sablon , 1000 Bruxelles