

Adoration Of The Magi On Copper, Frantz Franken II Entourage (15811642)

900 EUR

Signature : entourage Frantz Franken II

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting on copper

Length : 13.5

Width : 16

Description

Charming copper painting illustrating the Adoration of the Magi, a scene emblematic of Christian tradition. The lively composition brings together the richly-dressed Magi, who have come to pay homage to Baby Jesus, in a well-balanced, luminous setting. Costume details of the costumes, the expressions of the characters and the landscape in the background testify to meticulous, refined craftsmanship. The copper base provides a precise rendering, much appreciated by art lovers. Dimensions (unframed): 13.5 x 16 cm Dimensions (with frame): 26.5 x 30 cm Substrate: oil on copper Paintings on copper - Stylistic note This oil on copper is part of the production of the Flemish school Flemish school of the 17th century. Copper, a highly prized medium for small formats, allows for

Dealer

Atelier Marival

Spécialiste Tableaux Anciens

Tel : 03 44 57 48 90

Mobile : 06 82 44 65 29

2 rue de Chantilly

Gouvieux 60 270

exceptionally fine execution, akin of illumination, with transparent glazes and characteristic luminous highlights. luminous highlights. The style evokes the influence of the Francken (Frans Francken II) and Brueghel, in the tradition of Antwerp's masters who specialized in religious scenes of private devotion. scenes. The palette of bright reds, deep blues and luminous golds, the fluidity of the drapery and the expressiveness of the figures bear witness to a moderate Nordic theatrical in gesture, narrative and colorful in spirit. in spirit. Intended for personal devotion or personal devotion. Framing: molded wood frame with pearled pearled decoration