Description

This magnificent intimate portrait, painted by an unknown yet undoubtedly gifted artist of the late 19th century, captures with incredible grace the captivating image of a young violinist tuning her instrument. The artist works virtuosically with light: the beautiful, noble face of the young lady, framed by soft curls, seems to glow, creating an enigmatic contrast with the dark, velvety tones of the background. The highest level of skill in rendering the finest details of both the young heroine and her exquisite evening dress deserves special admiration. Full of alluring magnetism and contemplative harmony, this painting will make an exquisite centrepiece for any collection or interior. DETAILS: Artist: Unsigned, unidentified professional artist. Medium: Oil on canvas. Image dimensions (approx.): 66.3 x 50.7
