

Paul Dumont Jasper Ginkgo Earrings In Silver, Art Nouveau

1 300 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Paul Dumont jasper ginkgo earrings in silver. Drop earrings by Paul Dumont, set with a grey-green jasper cabochon delicately held by two silver ginkgo leaves. The earrings have an elongated shape and develop delicate curves typical of the Art Nouveau period. The clasps are original and have a screw-back system. Antique earrings, circa 1910, signed Paul Dumont. Boar's head hallmark, illegible silversmith's hallmark (active between 1907 and 1939), "Dumont" signatures. Height: 6 cm - Width: 1.3 cm - Thickness: 7 mm. Note: screw-back fastening system for unpierced ears. Condition: scratches from use. Weight: 8.60 gr. The antique case is not sold with the jewelry.

Dealer

Maison Mohs

Antique & Vintage jewelry

- sur rendez-vous -

Paris 75004