1 300 EUR

Signature : Milo baughman

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Elegant dining table attributed to Milo Baughman, a major figure in American design in the 1970s, renowned for his sophisticated creations blending minimalism and luxury. This piece is distinguished by its sculptural chrome-plated metal structure, composed of a play of interlocking geometric volumes, supporting a large thick glass top. The whole creates an airy visual effect while asserting a strong architectural presence.???? An ideal dining table for 6 to 8 people, perfect for a high-end design, contemporary or vintage interior.
