Description

Important dining table attributed to Italian designer Romeo Rega, an iconic figure of 1970s glamorous design, renowned for his sophisticated creations blending metal, glass and architectural lines. This piece features an elegant structure in chrome-plated metal and brass, with minimalist geometric lines, resting on a graphic base forming a play of visual balances typical of Rega's work. The thick glass top underscores the lightness of the whole while revealing the quality of the structure. The ensemble exudes a luxurious, timeless aesthetic, halfway between modernism and Hollywood Regency style. Features: Attribution: Romeo Rega Origin: Italy Era: 1970s Materials: chrome-plated metal, brass, thick glass Platter: clear glass Capacity: 6 to 8 people Condition: Very good overall
