Description

Pair of large Limoges porcelain dishes - Galant decor, P.D Limoges, late 19th / early 20th century
Elegant pair of Limoges porcelain dishes with polychrome decor of galant scenes in the 18th century taste. Each piece features a different scene inspired by the rococo spirit:- a musician accompanying two young women in a park,- a dancing couple surrounded by figures in period dress. The decorations are finely executed, with delicate, nuanced colors, against a backdrop of country landscapes. The richly molded marli is enhanced with iridescent hues ranging from green to brown, offering a beautiful decorative effect. Marked on reverse P.D Limoges. Diameter: approx. 35 cm
Era: late 19th - early 20th century
Condition: Good overall condition. A few traces of use and slight wear to the decoration,
