Description

Very elegant console table in red mahogany (from Cuba), from the 18th century in the purest Louis XVI style, white Carrara marble top edged with a gallery, low tray in brace, open on the front gallery elegantly openwork and beautiful scrapers on the top of the legs in tapered fluted column ending with bronze clogs, a generous drawer on the front with oak inlay, a discreet recessed bronze entrance and its lock with key, the moderate proportion and elegance of the curved sides lend majesty to this pretty decorative and useful piece; easy to place in an entrance hall, a living room or a dining room. With its sober, classic style, this beautiful sideboard has everything to seduce, all the more so as it is in very good original condition (Parisian furniture) circa 1780.
