Description

British painter (19th-20th century) - Wooded landscape with waterfall, shepherdess and flock. 50 x 37 cm (without frame) - 56 x 43 cm (with frame). Oil on panel, in gilt wood frame. Signed lower right. The painting depicts a wooded landscape through which a stream descends among rocky boulders, forming a waterfall in the foreground. In the background, the vegetation opens onto a cloudy sky with birds in flight. On the right bank, a female figure with a child accompanies a flock of sheep along a path. The scene is consistent with the British Romantic landscape tradition, with careful attention to the rendering of light filtered through the foliage and the movement of the water. Condition report: Original panel. Good condition of the pictorial surface, with signs of aging and wear. All
