Description

A set of two folding chairs of the "Plia" design. Unlike the more common plastic version, this exclusive edition features a sophisticated combination of chrome-plated tubular frame and solid wood uprights covered in fine Viennese cane. This choice of materials lends a special warmth and warm elegance to the functional design and its iconic three-disc hinge. And because it's a natural material, the ensemble features charming natural color nuances that give each chair its own unique character. A timeless ensemble that harmoniously combines traditional craftsmanship and industrial innovation.
