Description

Beautiful portrait of a young woman, dressed in antique style, carrying a garland of flowers in her arms. This is a 19th-century French school painting in gouache... A luminous, harmonious portrait of this elegant woman, whose beauty is evident in her sparkling eyes and brown curls, posing in a mineral and vegetal setting.... The gouache is in very good condition, with a small 19th-century gilded baguette, which has a few non-shocking irregularities: 15.5 x 11 cm. The whole has a lot of charm!
