Description

French Master (18th century) - Allegory of the Arts. 53 x 72 cm (unframed) - 63 x 83 cm (framed). Oil on canvas, in a gilded wooden frame. The composition depicts an Allegory of Painting and Music set against a classical architectural background with ruins in the capriccio tradition. At the centre, two female figures embody the respective arts: the first, seated before an easel, holds a palette and brushes; the second, reclining on the ground, holds a golden lyre and wears a laurel crown, her arm raised in an inspired gesture. In the foreground, putti and musical instruments complete the allegory; to the right, two putti appear engaged in reading or study. In the background, an open landscape with classical architecture and statues introduces a winged
