Description

A young, nude boy sits on an amphora resting on a rock. The amphora features a medallion depicting an old man with long hair and a beard. The sculpture bears the signature of A. Bofill and the foundry mark (Luis Domenech y Vicente?) with the fineness guarantee. Antonio Bofill-Conill, known as Antoine Bofill, was an artist born in Barcelona in 1875 and died in 1925. Renowned for his Belle Époque bronzes, he worked in Paris from 1890 and exhibited at the Paris Salon in 1894 and 1910.
