Description

French school circa 1700, entourage of Charles De La Fosse An allegory of lust(?) holding a medallion depicting two fornicating figures Three pencils on prepared paper 57 x 44.5 cm framed - 41 x 28 cm on sheet Small stains and accidents on the edges Style framing A rather strange subject, with a relatively "classical" treatment of the allegorical figure that seems to evoke the goddess Flora or Ceres, and this shield/medallion surrounded by flowers that is jarring by its subject: A couple making love. The workmanship and materials (3 pencils, very thick, ragged prepared paper) directly evoke the influence of Charles de La Fosse. Shipping offered and insured in mainland France.
