Description

Gilded and polychrome wood statuette. It depicts an elderly man with a gray beard and moustache, seated on a throne (armchair) with a backrest. The figure is dressed in a traditional wide-sleeved robe, originally gilded. His right hand is clenched (probably originally holding an attribute such as a brush or cane), while his left rests flat on his knee. Four Chinese characters are visible on the figure's back: ?????? (Kai yin shi yé). Shiye (??) is an honorific term meaning "Master" or "Teacher", often used to designate protective deities or deified ancestors who, during their lifetime, were scholars or officials. China, Qing dynasty, 19th century. Height 13 cm, width 7 cm, depth 5.5 cm. Relatively good condition, a few small gaps. Free delivery within the European Union!
