

18th Century Directoire Period Mahogany And Ebony Knitting Coffee Table

680 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Height : 72,5cm

Description

late 18th century coffee table made of mahogany veneer, ebony inclusions and blackened wood fillets. Two pilaster-shaped uprights unite three spacer trays topped by a drop-front bowl top. An "flying" piece of furniture, designed to be moved as needed, it is intended for the living room, to hold ladies' books or for a snack. Directoire period's production, circa 1790s, late 18th century. Good overall condition, old restorations, the varnish cleaned and repolished by our cabinetmaker, slightly insolated. Height : 72,5cm Length : 60,5cm Width : 30,6cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000