Description

A vintage pocket tray that can double as a dish or small ashtray, in Limoges enamel art, signed Duban Christel. Piece of 20th-century art, with relief decoration and stylized motifs in black, gold and green enamel, handmade. From the middle of the 20th century, the two Limoges artists Roger Duban and Christian Christel created relief paintings, sculptures and shapes that sometimes evoke the world of Vasarely. Christian Christel invents his own colors. In Limoges, Christel speaks of reds, blues or greens. Diameter: 11.5 cm. Good condition with traces of use
