Description

Superb animal sculpture depicting two panthers in full struggle, the work of French sculptor Georges Gardet, a major figure of the animal school. This emblematic model, known for having been declined in marble and preserved in public collections, illustrates all the artist's mastery in rendering movement and tension. Our example, in gilded bronze, features a fine quality of casting, carried out by the house of Thiéba Frères, a renowned Parisian foundry. The gilding particularly highlights the volumes and power of the composition. Features Golden bronze Signed "G. Gardet" Founder: Thiéba Frères, Paris Subject: panthers in combat Dimensions Height: 50 cm Width: 50 cm
