Description

Floor lamp by German designer Hans Kögl for the Jansen house from the 1960s-70s, representing a lush bouquet of white and gold flowers (edelweiss-like). The floor lamp is composed of 10 white lacquered metal flowers on stems and 5 lights emerging from patinated old gold floral buds, leaves of the same tone. The base is in gilded wood surrounded by a wreath of leaves. The white lacquer of the flowers is in perfect condition, nice patina to the gilding. Height approx. 130 cm, span approx. 70 cm.
