Description

Pair of Mid 20th-Century French Brown Leather Club Armchairs
A superb pair of mid 20th-century French leather club armchairs, offering exactly what one looks for in classic "fauteuils clubs": deep, time softened comfort, generous proportions and that unmistakable Art Deco silhouette. The solid, weighty frames and beautifully rolled arms with elegant curves are typical of good mid-century French craftsmanship. Traditionally horsehair filled, with classic deep button-back upholstery and loose feather filled seat cushions, these chairs provide exceptionally comfortable, enveloping seating. Upholstered in high quality hide and hand dyed to an elegant warm brown in our workshop, the leather has a rich, even finish with a striking patina that speaks of age, use and
