Description

Authentic Louis-Philippe period flat desk, crafted in burr walnut with rich, warm veining. This piece of furniture is distinguished by its sober, balanced lines, characteristic of the Louis-Philippe style. The rectangular-shaped top is sheathed in brown leather and offers a comfortable work surface. It opens on the front with four drawers, adorned with brass keyhole escutcheons, providing an additional touch of refinement. The desk rests on four drawers. The desk rests on four turned and fluted legs, ensuring stability and elegance. Side pulls on the ends are practical for enlarging the workspace. Delivery in France from 60 to 100 euros As usual, our furniture is checked and restored if necessary, so it's ready to integrate your interior with no work required.
