Description

Bourguignonne trough - 3 troughs With its rings for holding the animalsEpoque : XVI or XVII th century"It's difficult to precisely date this type of object common on farms since the Middle Ages.To be on the safe side, we prefer to give it the XVI or XVII th century,but this trough may have been made a century or two earlier.The wear on the stone at the neck of the animals feeding in it suggests several centuries of use.Beautiful ochre patinaOrigin: Chatillon sur Seine regionLimestone Perfect conditionLength: 2.10 mWidth: 45 cmHeight: 26 cmDeliverable by our transporter on quotation.Very careful transport due to the fragility of the piece when handled.
