Description

A 1970s dining room table edited by Ligne Roset, with a sculptural, resolutely modernist design.It features a vast oval top in thick glass, whose transparency highlights a particularly striking white marble base. The contrast between the mineral purity of the marble and the visual lightness of the glass lends a certain elegance and sophistication to the whole.The base is articulated around a large sphere associated with intersecting sloping elements, forming a composition that is both dynamic and architectural.The base is articulated around a large sphere associated with intersecting sloping elements, forming a composition that is both dynamic and architectural.The contrast between the mineral purity of the marble and the visual lightness of the glass lends a certain elegance and
