Description

Late 19th century oil on canvas depicting a dynamic charge of Berber horsemen across a vast desert landscape. The work is distinguished by the finesse of the drawing, the power of the movement and the attention to detail, both in the expressions of the faces and in the rendering of the horses and the red cloths animated by the wind. In the background, imposing rock formations structure the composition and accentuate the grandeur of the Saharan setting. This Orientalist-inspired painting exudes an impression of strength and nobility, highlighting Berber heroism and warrior tradition in a spectacular setting. Dimensions: Height: 100 cm Width: 115 cm
