Description

An elegant Louis XVI-style bed crafted from wood with refined decorative inlays. The frame features panels embellished with floral and geometric motifs created using the marquetry technique, with a central medallion that enhances the ornamental design.The lines are understated and balanced, typical of the neoclassical style of the late 18th century, while the slender truncated pyramid legs lend lightness and harmony to the whole. The quality of the craftsmanship and the richness of the inlays make this piece a highly charming addition, ideal for classic settings or interiors seeking a touch of timeless elegance.A piece with a striking presence and excellent craftsmanship, perfect for both period interiors and contemporary settings with a refined aesthetic.
