Description

Elegant pair of sofa ends or side tables edited by Steiner, attributed to Pierre Guariche, emblematic of French design in the 50s. Their line is of great purity: square top in white laminate edged with wood, resting on a black lacquered metal base with an airy, graphic design, the signature of Guariche's refined modernism. Minimalist and sophisticated, these tables naturally find their place as sofa ends, bedside tables or small side tables in a contemporary or mid-century interior. Very fine quality Steiner edition, rare model presented as a pair. Features: Publisher: Steiner Attributed to: Pierre Guariche Era: 1950s-60s Materials: laminate, wood veneer, black lacquered metal Sold as a pair Very nice vintage condition, slight traces of use consistent with age A sober, architectural and timeless pair, a
