Description

Elegant and rare large mirror, featuring remarkable carving in the Louis XVI style.The richly ornate frame is topped by an openwork pediment decorated with a laurel wreath and finely chased garlands, testifying to high quality craftsmanship.The warm, nuanced patina of leaf gilding finely highlights the reliefs and gives the whole an exceptional decorative presence.The harmonious proportions and purity of lines make this piece both majestic and balanced.The very large mirror captures the light and structures the space with elegance, ideal in a classic interior, a Haussmann décor or as a contrast in a contemporary setting.Beautiful condition, with traces of time consistent with its age, contributing to its authenticity.
