Description

Restoration-period (1815-1830) circular burrwood box, adorned in the middle with a medal-like repoussé brass portrait of Louis XVIII, inscribed "LOUIS XVIII ROI DE FRANCE". The inside of the lid and the blond tortoiseshell banding, intact. There are a few knocks, deformations to the brass, and old restorations; we refer here to the photographs that best document these damages of time. This box came to us with a lock of hair inside, a widespread practice in the 19th century: we are selling it as is. Beautiful dimensions: 10 cm in diameter, 3 cm high. Very fine patina.
