Description

We present an elegant table lamp edited by the French house Arlus Éclairage, a major reference in modernist lighting from the 1950s-1970s. This piece perfectly illustrates the publisher's formal language: a sculptural base with organic, clean lines, typical of French Mid-Century design, topped by a large lampshade (Ø 57 cm) giving it a presence that is both decorative and architectural. The ensemble captivates with its balance, the sobriety of its lines and the quality of its workmanship, making it a piece particularly suited to contemporary interiors as well as design collections. The original "Arlus Éclairage" label is present, guaranteeing the authenticity of the edition. ?EDITOR Arlus Éclairage - France PERIOD Circa 1960 MATERIALS Lacquered metal and textile
