Description

Claude Mourier is a French painter born in 1930. He is known for his colorful works, including landscapes, still lifes and scenes of everyday life. Claude Mourier began his artistic career in the 1950s as an advertising graphic designer. He then turned to painting and developed a personal style characterized by vivid colors and a vibrant touch. He has exhibited his work in numerous European galleries, including Paris, Brussels, Amsterdam and Munich. The subjects of his paintings include landscapes of the French countryside and seascapes, portraits, still lifes and scenes of everyday life. In all his paintings, it's possible to admire his mastery of color and his ability to capture the atmosphere of his subject.
