Description

Pair of Louis XVI Style Armchairs with Medallion Backs in Carved and Polished Natural Wood

This elegant pair of Louis XVI style armchairs features medallion backs crafted from carved and polished beechwood. Resting on tapered, fluted legs, the arm supports with a whiplash curve add a touch of sophistication.

Inspired by the creations of Georges Jacob, these chairs are a French work from the mid-19th century. They are in excellent condition and have been reupholstered with a black and gold floral fabric, offering a refined finish.
