Description

Superb bronze sculpture signed (PRADIER SUSSE foundry). Magnificent bronze subject representing a child and a swan in a composition full of grace and movement. The work of detail is remarkable, fineness of the wings, expressiveness of the face and very natural rendering of the animal. This work bears the signature of J PRADIER (1790-1852) famous sculptor of the nineteenth century known for his neoclassical creations mixing elegance and sensuality.
