Description

Beautiful kilim made from 2 panels of Maffrash Shasaven sewn together. Origin: Persia. Originally, Maffrash were the largest carrying bags used by the nomadic populations of Persia and the Caucasus. Accessorily, they were used as baby carriages once the camp was set up. Woven wool on wool. The weaving is a pure marvel, everything is there, extreme finesse, precision and regularity. The piece is light and supple. Extremely fine and refined workmanship. The shades are very soft, they are natural. The beautiful depth of field lets a myriad of stars sparkle. Late 19th century. Perfect condition. Dim: 164 x 103 cm If, like us, you are impressed by the beauty of such objects, I invite you to contact us directly. Our collection includes over a hundred Maffrash, complete and fragmented. Laurent Beauty of
