Buste De Bacchus Couronne De Pampres By Jean-baptiste Clésinger , By The Barbedienne Foundry

1 800 EUR

Signature : Jean-Baptiste Clésinger

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Bronze

Height : 33

Description

Bust, in Bronze, by Jean-Baptiste Clésinger (1814-1883) with Brown patina, representing Bacchus wearing a bunch of grapes and vine leaves.this is an early 19th century edition, published by Ferdinand Barbedienne, a famous foundry, demonstrating technical perfection and the absolute reference of the time.This is a mechanical reduction of collas , photo of the hidden to put on the back guaranteeing, a perfect fidelity or proportion of the original, created in 1850, The condition is perfect and the Brown patina work presents a beautiful depth. The mounting on the underside of the base confirms the authenticity of the period.33 cm high, this work can be placed anywhere in your apartment.

Dealer

Recamier Antiquités

Généraliste

Tel : 04 93 88 15 25

Mobile : 06 08 27 64 32

50 rue de france

Nice 06000