Description

A small round walnut table dating from the late 19th century, characterized by elegant lines and harmonious proportions. The finely crafted circular top highlights the wood's warm tone and natural grain. The frame rests on four slender, turned legs, embellished with carved details beneath the apron, which lend lightness and refinement to the overall design. The contoured perimeter apron completes the design with understated elegance. Perfect as a coffee table, side table, or sideboard, it fits easily into classic or contemporary settings, adding an authentic vintage touch. In good overall condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with its age.
